Dear fairy godmother,

How are you? We are the stepsisters of Cinderella and we wanted to know whether it was you who brought Cinderella to the tremendous party, thus making her fit in the sparkling glass shoe when the prince came, who married her off at once. Now she's queen of course, and she treated us so badly. Maybe, she wanted to take this chance and have revenge on us. She made us her slaves, by doing what she orders.

Once there was a party held in the castle and all the dukes and princes were coming everywhere to attend. We thought Cinderella would put us in the party as servants, but instead, she told us to stay in the kitchen and help the chef with the food until the party is over! She said it would be a shame for people to see how we looked like now. How wicked she is! She obviously knew that we didn't even know how to cook! She just wanted us to mess everything up so that she would have a reason to punish us. But this was not it.

The other time, she wanted to buy a gown in Bvlgau but it was such a long way from the castle. She told us to go with her, and give opinions how she looked in the gown. However, once she stepped into the carriage, she ordered us to accompany her by walking next to her carriage. Our eyes bulged out and we swallowed hard, but we have to obey, as she could do anything to punish us. So, we walked and walked and walked until we reached there. Both of our feet were torn and there were bruises everywhere. We sighed, but dared not to say a word. However, the worst was yet to come. She said she didn't like the design of the gown and decided to go to Versace in the neighbourhood for another one. Our hearts sunk, knowing that we'd never be able to walk forever. By the time we arrived at the castle, our feet were covered with dried red blood and we had no senses anymore. Cinderella gave us an evil laugh and said we had to do our work straight away. Why don't you help us now? She's such a nasty girl. Who gave her shelter when she was living in our house? Who gave her food? It's us. Without us, she couldn't possibly go to the party and be the queen. She can't treat us like this! She should thank us. We are still young and we can't simply waste our lives in such torture. We still need to choose someone to marry; she couldn't make us single for the rest of our lives! Please fairy godmother helps us. We knew we were treating Cinderella the wrong way when we were young, but we have no doubt that she is treating us more badly at the moment. Please reply this letter. We promise you that we would not do anything so mean to Cinderella anymore, and we hope Cinderella will treat us nicely too!

with lots of love,
